Pens Thicker than Blood, an Engrossing Tale of Two Sisters at a Crossroad

[Carol Stream, IL]-- Christy Williams has lived a troubled life but finally seems to have things back on track. She's working hard to build a career as an antiquarian book buyer. Things begin to unravel when a stolen Hemingway first edition is found in her possession, framing her for a crime she didn't commit. Soon Christy's fleeing from her shattered dreams, her ex-boyfriend, and God.

With no one to turn to, Christy yearns for her younger sister she left behind fifteen years ago. May's Triple Cross ranch could be the safe haven Christy is searching for, but will the sisters realize that each possesses what the other desperately needs before it's too late?

Tyndale House Publishers is pleased to announce the January 2010 publication of Thicker than Blood by C.J. Darlington, the winner of the 2008 Christian Writers Guild Operation First Novel Contest.

C.J. Darlington has been in the antiquarian bookselling business for over a decade, scouting for stores similar to the one described in Thicker than Blood before cofounding her own online bookstore. She also cofounded the Christian entertainment Web site www.TitleTrakk.com. A homeschool graduate, she lives in Pennsylvania with her family. Visit her Web site at www.cjdarlington.com.

C.J. is available for national interviews to promote the January 2010 release of Thicker than Blood. To schedule an interview, contact Vicky Lynch at vickylynch@tyndale.com or at (630) 784-5241.
